ADDICTION

In July 1998, Oscar-winning actor Gary Busey discussed his faith on The 700 Club. Though he has starred in over 60 films, including such hits as Lethal Weapon and The Firm, Busey's off-screen party-boy reputation and arrest record took center stage. After attending a Promise Keepers conference, his life changed dramatically. When asked if he thought about God when he was sinking into debauchery, Busey states:

"Of course not. There's no way to think about God. There's no reason to . . . 'cause your number-one relationship is with the dark side of you. . . . I learned that addiction is a failed search for spirituality."

Organised by: The TRAC Institute for Christian Ministry (ICM)

About the Retreat:

This 3D2N retreat will integrate times of teaching, reflection and prayer in the area of emotional healing and healing prayer. It is a retreat meant to be an encounter with the Lord and a rekindling of a deeper walk with Him. It is therefore a retreat that focuses on restoring our spiritual passion within the hearts and souls of those who are actively serving and walking with others. It is a time to pause and allow the Lord spaciousness so He can do His deepening work in our hearts. Hence, the ministry we are called to in reconciliation, counseling, pastoral care and journeying with others comes from deeper places of healing and encountering of Him.

About the Retreat Facilitator:

Dr Steve Seamands earned degrees from Asbury College and Seminary, Princeton Theological Seminary and Drew University. He is known for gracefully merging the theology and practice and considers himself, above all, to be a pastoral theologian. He teaches with the scholar's mind and the pastor's heart. Dr Seamands has developed a particular interest in the areas of emotional healing, spiritual warfare and intercessory prayer and has ministered deeply to the brokenness in people's lives. He was a pastor and is an ordained elder under the Kentucky Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. Other than teaching, he is an active retreat and seminar leader. He is married with four children and six grandchildren.

Target Participants:
