IF

If to be a Christian is worthwhile, then the most ordinary interest in those with whom we come in contact would prompt us to speak to them of Christ.

If the New Testament be true--and we know that it is--who has given us the right to place the responsibility for soul-winning on other shoulders than our own?

If they who reject Christ are in danger, is it not strange that we, who are so sympathetic when the difficulties are physical or temporal, should apparently be so devoid of interest as to allow our friends and neighbors and kindred to come into our lives and pass out again without a word of invitation to accept Christ, to say nothing of sounding a note of warning because of their peril?

If today is the day of salvation, if tomorrow may never come and if life is equally uncertain, how can we eat, drink and be merry when those who live with us, work with us, walk with us and love us are unprepared for eternity because they are unprepared for time?

If Jesus called his disciples to be fishers of men, who gave us the right to be satisfied with making fishing tackle or pointing the way to the fishing banks instead of going ourselves to cast out the net until it be filled?

If Jesus himself went seeking the lost, if Paul the Apostle was in agony because his kinsmen, according to the flesh, knew not Christ, why should we not consider it worthwhile to go out after the lost until they are found?

If I am to stand at the judgment seat of Christ to render an account for the deeds done in the Body, what shall I say to him if my children are missing, if my friends are not saved or if my employer or employee should miss the way because I have been faithless?

If I wish to be approved at the last, then let me remember that no intellectual superiority, no eloquence in preaching, no absorption in business, no shrinking temperament or no spirit of timidity can take the place of or be an excuse for my not making an honest, sincere, prayerful effort to win others to Christ.

* GREETING

I will sing to the Lord as long as I live.
I will praise my God all my days.
 Great is the Lord and most worthy of praise;
 His greatness no one can fathom.
All You have made will praise you, O Lord;
Your saints will extol You.

* OPENING PRAYER

With many voices we praise You, O God.
In different ways we serve You.
As we assemble before You today
we pray that Your Spirit will be present among us and that You will take our diversity and mould it into a common theme of thanksgiving.
Dwell within our worship and within our hearts
that we may bless You and bring everlasting praise to Your name.
Amen.

THANKSGIVING

Father God, we thank You for everything in Your creation that speaks to us of Your grace, Your power, Your truth and Your glory.
We thank You for the life of Your church and for the tasks of worship and witness that You have given to us;
for the church's commitment to declare the truth of the gospel and to share the hope, love and freedom that Christ has won for everyone.
We praise You for every person whose life gives us hope,
for those who first brought us to Christ and for those whose witness, worship and service made the love of Christ a gift we could not resist.
May we do the same for others who do not know You.
Father, we have so much to thank You for;
by Your Spirit may our whole life be a song of praise
and a prayer of thankfulness.
In Christ's name. Amen.

13. MYAF BIBLE STUDY ON MARKETPLACE THEOLOGY BY DR. MARK LOVATT

Want to know what is the vision God has for the marketplace and the purposes he created it for? What biblical principles did God set out so that being in the marketplace would be a blessing rather than a 'curse'? The talk will help us deepen our faith and equip us for the marketplace with the assurance of fulfilling God's will.

Dr. Mark Lovatt, was a new technology developer in the UK in a large energy corporation. He holds a PhD from the University of Nottingham in Christian Theology and is currently an adjunct lecturer with STM.

So, come discover what God has in store for you in the marketplace. Details of the talk are :

SEMINARS

15. THE CALL TO JOY AND PAIN by Ajith Fernando

Date: 19 October 2009 (Monday)

Time: 8-10 pm

Venue: Main Sanctuary, Wesley Methodist Church KL

No registration required. This is an open public seminar.

This seminar is based on the author's book by the same title, "The Call to Joy and Pain" which won the 2008 Christianity Today Book Award. Joy and pain are both aspects of the call of God for the Christian. This seminar will explore the connection between rejoicing and suffering, how suffering draws us nearer to God, and how suffering makes us more effective in service. This theme will help Christians joyfully embrace the life of service and total devotion to Christ, despite the pain it entails.

Ajith Fernando has been the National Director of Youth for Christ in Sri Lanka since 1976. He is regularly involved in teaching ministry with staff and volunteers, pastoral care of leaders, supervising Youth Guidance and YFC'S drug rehabilitation ministry.
