THE UNDELIVERED MESSAGE

George Sweeting, in his book The No-Guilt Guide for Witnessing, tells of a man by the name of John Currier who in 1949 was found guilty of murder and sentenced to life in prison. Later he was transferred and paroled to work on a farm near Nashville, Tennessee.

In 1968, Currier's sentence was terminated, and a letter bearing the good news was sent to him. But John never saw the letter, nor was he told anything about it. Life on that farm was hard and without promise for the future. Yet John kept doing what he was told even after the farmer for whom he worked had died.

Ten years went by. Then a state parole officer learned about Currier's plight, found him, and told him that his sentence had been terminated. He was a free man.

Sweeting concluded that story by asking, "Would it matter to you if someone sent you an important message -- the most important in your life -- and year after year the urgent message was never delivered?"

We who have heard the good news and experienced freedom through Christ are responsible to proclaim it to others still enslaved by sin. Are we doing all we can to make sure that people get the message?

* GREETING

If it were not for the presence of God with us,
we would lack the strength to overcome
all that threatens to engulf us.

Praise God who strengthens and equips us to serve Him.
We join our praise to that of the Psalmist as we proclaim:
Our help is in the name of the Lord
who made heaven and earth.

* HYMN OF PRAISE We Gather Together UMH 131

* OPENING PRAYER

Grant, Father God,
that amidst all the discouragements, difficulties,
dangers and distress
which we face as we seek to live for You,
we may depend on Your mercy,
and on this build our hopes.

We come to You today
for a renewal of vision;
for a refreshment of spirit;
and for a restoration of passion.

Come descend upon us with Your power
as we worship and adore You.
Amen.

Father God, we thank You for everything in Your creation and to share the hope, love and freedom that Christ has won for everyone.

We praise You for every person whose life gives us hope,
for those who first brought us to Christ
and for those whose witness, worship and service
made the love of Christ a gift we could not resist.
May we do the same for others who do not know You.
Father, we have so much to thank You for;
